I Think I Get

It Now C

major 4/4

time intro

C until vocals start

verse 1

C Dadd9

I can't say when, and I don't know how

Em Asus2

I think that I can say that I get it now

C Dadd9

I can't say it loud, or what it's about

Em Asus2

But I'll say it and then see myself out

C Dadd9

She listens to Taylor, and she looks in the mirror

Em Asus2

And knows she's always been a dreamer

C Dadd9

And he digs in the mud, and he carries the stone

Em Asus2

And knows he's terrified to be alone

verse 2

C Dadd9

They moved out to this, small town in Ohio

Em Asus2

She studied to be a pilot, he studied the bottle

C Dadd9

Then one day, drove up to Toledo

Em Asus2

She got her diploma, he hit rock bottom

C Dadd9

Then they made a pact, a humble solemn act

Em Asus2

To walk through this life and be proud

chorus 2

verse 3

C Dadd9

I can't say when, and I don't know how

Em Asus2

I think that I can say that I get it now

C Dadd9

I can't say it loud, or what it's about

Em Asus2

But I'll say it and then see myself out

C Dadd9

She's not afraid of the hustle, neither is he

Em Asus2

They'll build their life the way they want it to be

C Dadd9

Then one day, a long long time from now

Em Asus2

They'll look back and say I get it now
