

Rise Again-E (tuned to Eb)

Intro riff

4 bars of lead hits

[Verse 1]

E

The night was cold, the sky was black
I walked that road alone
The wind was howlin' at my back
But I kept pressin' on

[Verse 2]

E

My faith was frayed, my hands were worn

G

The ground was rough and steep

A

The weight I carried felt like stone

D

But steady I will keep

[Chorus]

G

I rise again, I won't stay down

D

These blues won't be my chains

E G

I hear the call, that steady sound

D A

Of hope that still remains

Big Riff!!!

[Verse 3]

I've lost some friends, I've paid the dues

And learned what I could take

But I've still got too much to lose

To let my spirit break

[Chorus]

E G

I rise again, I won't stay down

A C D

These blues won't be my chains

E G

I hear the call, that steady sound

D A

Of hope that still remains

Quick Riff That Sam Hates

Interlude riff

[Bridge]

You can knock me to the floor

But I won't stay for long
Every crack just shows me more
Of what makes me strong

[Final Chorus]

I rise again, with every scar
They shine like morning rain
I've come too far, I know I am
The soul that won't be tamed

[Outro]

Yeah, I rise again —
No matter how it ends.
