

“Six-String Prayer” E

85 BPM

(Verse 1)

[Em]

I was born in the blues, and they cut me deep,

[Em]

[B]

Demons from my past won't let me sleep.

[Em]

[A]

Though I am a sinner, every chord is a prayer, and I'm

[G]

[A] Stop

[Em] riff

Playin' for mercy in the midnight air.

(Verse 2)

[Em]

Fingers start to bleed, but I don't mind,

[Em]

[B]

Every wound's a story left behind.

[Em]

[A]

Let the guitar moan, let the feedback come, will you

[G]

[A] Stop

[Em] riff

Sing me to heaven when my time comes.

(Chorus)

[C]

[D]

[Em]

my six string prayer, let the angels hear,

[C]

[D]

[B]

Cut through the noise, wash away my fear

[Em]

[A] [G]

If there's anybody listening, let them know I'm here,

[C][B]

[Em]

Lost in the beauty of a six-string prayer.

(Verse 3)

[Em]

Every song I sing, every note I play.

[Em]

[B]

A prayer answered, trouble gone away.

[Em]

[A]

So let the guitar moan, let the feedback come,
and I'll

[G]

[A] Stop

[Em] riff

sing you to heaven when your time comes.

Solo-verse and chorus

(Chorus 2 - Repeated with gospel-style harmonies)

[C]

[D]

[Em]

my six string prayer, let the devil hear,

[C]

[D]

[B]

Burn through the ashes, nothing left to fear

[Em]

[A] [G]

If there's anybody listening, let them know I'm here, and I'm

[C][B]

[Em]

Lost in the glory of a six-string prayer
