solo piano)

Am, AmM7, Am7, Am#6, Bdim, E7 (x2
w/band)

(verse 1)

Am AmM7 Am7 Am#6
He's proud to say he's a bureaucrat

Bdim E7
He keeps that feather in his hat

Am AmM7 Am7
Am#6 Surprised he doesn't remember that

Bdim E7
What gets him his percent and what keeps him fat

Am AmM7
Am7 Am#6 are the same things that keep him loose

Bdim E7
whenever he's run out of juice

Am AmM7 Am7

Am#6 when he can't count those one's and
two's

Bdim E7 Am
He'll remember what he's about to lose
but he can't

(chorus)

F E7b9
He bet on that winning game

F E7b9
Art Officially insane

F E7b9
And of course he can do no wrong

F E7b9
He bet on the corporate song

(interlude)

Am, AmM7, Am7, Am#6, Bdim, E7 (x2)

(verse 2)

Am AmM7 Am7

Am#6 She's proud to say
she's a socialite

Bdim E7
In a dress by day and a necklace at night

Am AmM7 Am7 Am#6

She doesn't worry because she's right

Bdim E7

She keeps her figure lean and light

Am AmM7

Am7 Am#6 But on the inside, She's big and fat

Bdim E7

Underneath the shade of a wide-brimmed hat

Am AmM7 Am7 Am#6

If she ever knew that this wasn't that

Bdim E7

She'd lick herself like a wounded cat

Am

But she can't

(chorus)

F E7b9

She bet on that winning game

F E7b9

Art Officially insane

F E7b9

And of course she can do no wrong

F E7b9

She bet on the corporate song

(drum interlude 8 bars, guitar lightly comping, 16th note hand claps)

(walkdown, + 4 +a)

(chorus)

F E7b9

She bet on that winning game

F E7b9

Art Officially insane

F E7b9

And of course she can do no wrong

F E7b9

She bet on the corporate song

(outro)

Am, AmM7, Am7, Am#6, Bdim, E7 (x2)
